

Rhythm Machine:

Someone starts in the centre of the circle making an action and a sound that accompanies that action. As people get ideas they can go into the centre and add to the machine with their own action and sound. When everyone is in use different verbs such as: “The machine is speeding up” “Slowing down” “stopping”

This a fun game to do with people who are already pretty warmed up and comfortable.