

to show that there are others ways to have fun. Life doesn't have to revolve around the next party.

Evaluation: Through this exercise the group should: - have weighed the "positive" and "negative" aspects of drug and alcohol use. - Come to their own conclusions if it is worth it. - develop a list of healthy alternatives. - Know that they don't always need to go down the drug & alcohol route.